GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES
OF THE NORTH SAN DIEGO COUNTY INTERGROUP ASSOCIATION OF ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS

DEFINITION

Intergroup: The North San Diego County Intergroup Association of Alcoholics Anonymous (also known as Intergroup) is a non-profit corporation organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. The Intergroup is made up of elected representatives from the Alcoholics Anonymous groups located in North San Diego County. Each group is entitled to elect an Intergroup Representative who has one vote on all matters brought before the Intergroup.

The Intergroup is responsible for maintaining the North County Central Office. The Intergroup and Central Office are supported by the voluntary financial contributions from the North San Diego County Alcoholics Anonymous groups and the volunteer efforts of Alcoholics Anonymous group members.

In keeping with the Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous, the Intergroup recognizes the autonomy of Alcoholics Anonymous groups and does not perform any governmental functions. The Intergroup cooperates with all Alcoholics Anonymous service entities.

Alcoholics Anonymous Groups: The Alcoholics Anonymous groups are the ultimate authority over all Alcoholics Anonymous committees and service boards.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the corporation shall be to:

1. Aid the Groups in their common purpose of carrying the A.A. message to alcoholics.
2. Purpose of the North San Diego County Intergroup is to provide a forum for the interchange of ideas between groups.
3. Foster a sense of communication and rapport among the various A.A. Groups.
4. Discuss matters of concern which affect A.A. as a whole in the North County area.
5. Provide funds through their 7th Tradition contributions for the operation of the North San Diego County Central Office (Prudent Reserve of not less than six (6) months nor more than one (1) year's operating expenses).
6. Provide leadership, direction and oversight for the operation of a North San Diego County Central Office.

The North San Diego County Intergroup Association, in keeping with Alcoholics Anonymous Traditions, recognizes the anonymity of all Alcoholics Anonymous Groups in the area and does not claim to perform any governing functions. The North San Diego County Intergroup Association pledges cooperation with the San Diego Intergroup, Inc., San Diego-Imperial Area Assembly, and all other Alcoholics Anonymous service entities.

I.
