

March 2026

Step 3 Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.

Tradition 3 The only requirement for AA membership is a desire to stop drinking.

Concept 3 To insure effective leadership, we should endow each element of A.A.—the Conference, the General Service Board and its service corporations, staffs, committees, and executives—with a traditional “Right of Decision.”

Personal Story — Trusted Servant	Page 1	<h3 style="text-align: center;">Trusted Servant</h3> By Rick R How fortunate we are to have the Twelve Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous to help us set the tone for how we should conduct ourselves with respect to the core values that were hammered out by the founders of A.A. They were careful not to make rules and laws that were designed to take away the individual groups choices on how they want to format their meeting. I myself have been to meetings where the format was four pages long and I wondered if the folks that make the decisions about those things had ever read the traditions. It seemed to me that almost every new secretary wanted to put their own brand on it, often without running it by the group for approval. I've also been to meetings where someone was railroaded into becoming the secretary and really didn't want the job but was pressured into taking it anyway and, as a result, the meeting suffered from neglect and sometimes folded up. Sometimes it's just a matter of inexperience and a lack of stewardship, but it happens just the same and it will continue to happen for as long as we continue to welcome new members into the program. So, what role can I play that would bring the most positive result to these types of situations? In tradition two in the twelve and twelve, it describes the two extremes of involvement and the two options we must choose from as, bleeding deacons and elder statesmen. It does not demand that we select one or the other. It seems to imply that we can choose, for ourselves, which path we want to take. The traditions are laced through and through with patience and tolerance and we will embrace the spirit of understanding when faced with them. (Continued on page 8)

North County Intergroup Association of AA Meeting Minutes

Date/Time: The monthly meeting of the Intergroup Association of AA was called to order at 6:30 PM by the Chair Jay M on Wednesday, March 11, 2026.

Attendance: Jay M (Chair), Lisa F (Co-Chair), Mike C (Treasurer), Sam L (Member at Large).

Traditions: Read by Tyler A.

Prior Meeting Minutes: Ross S. (858) 699-7324 | Secretary@ncsandiegoaa.org

- Minutes from the prior meeting were read by Lisa F. A motion was passed to approve the minutes as corrected.

Financial Report: Mike C. (714) 319-1877 | Treasurer@ncsandiegoaa.org

The Treasurer's Report was presented by Mike C.

February 2026

- Total Sales: $3,124
- Cost of Goods Sold: $2,650
- Gross Profit (Loss): $474
- Group Contributions: $3,476
- Member Contributions: $308
- Traditions Breakfast: ($1,514)
- Bank Interest: $260
- Total Other Revenue: $2,529
- Total Revenue: $3,003
- Operating Expenses: $9,527
- Net Profit (Loss): ($6,524)
- YTD Loss: $21,740

Balances:

- Money Market: $10,461
- CDs Total: $89,452
- Business Checking: $23,186
- Special Events Checking: $21,079
- Total Prudent Reserve: $99,913
- Months of reserve funds available: 10

A new sub-checking account was established specifically for special events ticket sales to ensure funds owed to venues are held separately.

The significant decrease in group contributions from January to February was noted as a typical annual trend caused by the rotation of group treasurers.

The Year-to-Date loss is a result of intentional spending of surplus funds on projects like literature discounts and workshops to align with prudent reserve guidelines.

Central Office Report: Liz H. (760) 758-2514 | Manager@ncsandiegoaa.org

- Book prices from NY increased by $3 per book in February. The 30% discount continues and has been adjusted to reflect the new prices.

 - Texts come in to the central office phone number and are forwarded to all committee members; the first to respond assists the caller.
 - Volunteers' personal phone numbers are not revealed – responses appear to come from the Central Office.
 - Backup volunteers welcome; contact Laura.

Archives: TBD | Archives@ncsandiegoaa.org

- An Archives Chair is still needed. Suggested sobriety: 5 years. Term: 3 years. Archives are stored at the Central Office – no home storage required. The role involves overseeing existing archives and collecting new historical materials.
- Intergroup reps are encouraged to bring this volunteer opportunity back to their home groups.
- Sam L. and Danny P. will staff an Archives table at the Traditions Breakfast this Sunday, March 15th, featuring group history information.

Outreach: Joel H. (760) 586-9245 | Outreach@ncsandiegoaa.org

- Joel encouraged any group without representation to attend Intergroup. There are approximately 720 AA meetings per week in North San Diego County; fewer than 60 are currently represented at Intergroup.
- A new outreach document, organized by city/area, was distributed via the Liz's email and will be available at the Traditions Breakfast. It lists committee chairs and contact information and is designed to help reps recruit new intergroup participation in their local areas.
- The committee is looking for "area captains" – individuals or groups willing to visit local meetings and ask whether they have an intergroup rep. Anyone interested can contact Joel or the Central Office.

Special Events: Cynde F. (623) 882-6794 | SpecialEvents@ncsandiegoaa.org

- The Traditions Breakfast is this Sunday, March 15th. 568 tickets have been sold. Volunteers and committee members will arrive at 6:30 AM; doors open at 8:00 AM.
- Cynde is planning a future workshop on AA group structure – covering meeting formats, secretary responsibilities, how groups are formed, and related topics. No date has been set yet.
- Cynde is stepping down as Special Events Chair at the end of the year after two years in the role. A co-chair is welcome to come on board now to learn the position before assuming the role.

All AA members are welcome.
- North County H&I is hosting the Southern California H&I Intergroup on March 22nd at the Harding Center in Carlsbad. Lunch at 11:00 AM; meeting noon–2:00 PM.

Old Business:

- No old business.

New Business:

- The Business Committee reviewed Central Office Manager Liz H.'s performance. Over the past three years, Liz independently learned QuickBooks and took on bookkeeping duties previously handled by an outside contractor. The Business Committee voted to award Liz a merit raise of $2.00 per hour for these additional duties, retroactive to her January anniversary date. As this exceeds the current budget, the motion was brought to Intergroup for a vote. Motion passed unanimously.

Elections:

- No nominations were received for the Archives Committee Chair position. The position remains open. Intergroup reps are asked to bring the opportunity back to their home groups. Requirements: 5 years sobriety recommended; 3-year term commitment. Contact the Central Office to express interest.

Announcements and Intergroup Rep Feedback:

- No feedback.

New Rep Introductions:

- Kate O. – Tuesday Night Women's As Bill Sees It, Escondido
- Mike M. – Saturday Morning Surf Dogs, Encinitas
